Lesson 1

Study Tip – learning vocabulary

- A good way to learn new words is to put connected words in sets, like this:
  Fruit: apples oranges grapes bananas strawberries

A Using a dictionary, check the meaning of any words you don't know. Write the words below in the correct set. There are five words in each set.

~~ankle~~ ~~bandage~~ ~~blood~~ ~~bones~~ ~~breathe~~ cough cream elbow faint heart knee medicine plaster pills shoulder skin sneeze stomach swallow wrist

Set	Words
Treatment:	bandage
Joints:	ankle
Verbs:	breathe
Inside and outside the body:	blood	bones

B Work in pairs. Student A chooses one of the problems A to N on page 6 of the Student's Book, but doesn't tell Student B. Student A mimes the problem and Student B guesses what's wrong and gives advice.

Example: Student A licks his lips and touches them.

Study Tip – words with similar meanings are not always interchangeable

- It is easier to use a word correctly if you know whether it is a verb, a noun or an adjective. Be careful with these words: hurt, sore, pain.
  - Hurt is a verb. The simple past is also hurt.
    My back hurts today. It also hurt yesterday. My feet hurt today. They hurt yesterday as well.
  - Sore is an adjective.
    My back is sore. My feet are also sore. They weren't sore yesterday.
  - Pain is a noun. In the singular it usually has an article.
    I have a pain in my stomach. Have you taken any medication for the pain?
    Yes, I took some painkillers an hour ago. Do you have pains anywhere else?

C Complete each sentence with a word from the box.

bleeding broken hurts pain sick sore dizzy sneeze

1 'Have you got a cold?' 'No, I always ____________ when I put pepper on my food.'

2 He was ____________ three times in the night. I think the food at the restaurant where he ate wasn't very fresh.

3 She cut her hand while she was chopping vegetables. It was a very deep cut and it was ____________ a lot, so she had to go to hospital and have it stitched.

4 My back ____________ all the time. It only feels OK when I am lying down.

5 She can't play tennis. She has ____________ her right arm.

6 I went swimming yesterday and now my eyes are ____________ from the chemicals in the pool.

7 Where exactly is the ____________ and how long have you had it?

8 It was a very hot day and she hadn't eaten or drunk anything all day. That's why she suddenly went pale and felt ____________ during the lesson.

D ① Listen and choose the correct word to end each sentence.
Write the numbers 1 to 6 in the correct boxes.

a) burnt ☐	c) swallow ☐	e) temperature ☐
b) fractured ☐	d) swollen ☐	f) throat ☐

Lesson 2

Past continuous and past simple

- We can use the past continuous and the past simple in the same sentence to show that one action happened in the middle of another action. We use the past continuous for the longer action and the past simple for the shorter action.

  I was ice-skating and I fell over.

- We often use while and as with the past continuous tense.

  While I was eating breakfast, a bird flew into the kitchen.*
  As I was eating breakfast, a bird flew into the kitchen.*

- We often use when or and with the past simple tense.

  I was eating breakfast when a bird flew into the kitchen.
  I was eating breakfast and a bird flew into the kitchen.

A Practise the dialogue in pairs. Then practise it again, changing the words in italics.

Adil: I've hurt my wrist.
Nurse: Sit down, please. I need to take your details.

Nurse: The doctor will see you very soon, Adil.

Doctor: How did you do it?
Adil: I was ice-skating and I fell over.

Adil: Do you think it's broken?
Doctor: Probably not. But you need to have an x-ray to make sure.

Adil: Is it broken?
Doctor: I'm afraid so. It's fractured here.

Doctor: I'm going to put your wrist in plaster.

Adil: How long will I have to keep it on?
Doctor: Six weeks.

B Put one verb in the past continuous and one in the past simple.

1 I (think) about you and then you (ring) me.

I was thinking about you and then you rang me.

2 While Ali (have) a shower, somebody (knock) at the front door.

3 I (clean) my room and I (find) £30 under my bed.

4 Luckily, Sharifa (not drive) very fast when the child (run) into the road.

5 A thief (take) our clothes while we (swim).

6 She (tell) us to be quiet as we (make) too much noise.

7 My sister (hide) my purse under the bed while I (not look).

8 As she (carry) the shopping from the car, my grandmother (slip) and (break) her ankle.

C Complete these sentences with your own ideas. Put the verbs in the past simple.

1 I was running and ______________________________

2 I wasn't looking where I was going and ______________________________

3 I was getting ready for school when ______________________________

4 My little brother was playing football when ______________________________

5 I was thinking about ______________________________ when the teacher suddenly ______________________________

6 While I was waiting for the bus, ______________________________

Lesson 3

A Read the article on page 8 of the Student's Book, then circle the correct answer.

1 Zaid Tariq was
 a) a bad swimmer.
 b) on holiday.
 c) working in Egypt.

2 When he was attacked by the shark, he
 a) was in a boat.
 b) hit it with a piece of wood.
 c) was lying on a plastic mattress.

3 Tariq
 a) was bitten by the shark.
 b) lost his arm.
 c) wasn't hurt at all.

4 Six dolphins
   a) bit the shark.
   b) made a lot of noise.
   c) protected Tariq.

   c) by two children.

6 When he got back to dry land, he was taken
   a) straight back to his hotel.
   b) back to Iraq.
   c) to get medical attention.

B Write questions about the article for the following answers. There are several possible questions you could write, but just write one each time.

Example:

Q: Where was Zaid Tariq staying?
OR: Where was Tariq on holiday?
OR: Where did these events take place?

A: In Sharm El Sheikh, Egypt.

Q: ______________________________

A: He was swimming when he saw it.

Q: ______________________________

A: The shark bit his arm.

Q: ______________________________

A: Because he thought he was dying.

Q: ______________________________

A: Dolphins.

Q: ____

A: The coastguard, Jameel Elalawi, did.

Q: ____ on the shore?

A: An ambulance.

C Take turns asking and answering your partner's questions on the article.

D Close your books. Retell the story, taking turns to say one sentence each. Start like this: Zaid Tariq was on holiday in Sharm El Sheikh. One morning, ...

Adjectives ending ~ing or ~ed

- Don't forget the difference between frightening and frightened, boring and bored, interesting and interested.
  The ~ed words describe the person who has the feeling.
  The ~ing words describe what or who gives them that feeling.

E Underline the correct word.

1 She is not very interested / interesting in fashion. She prefers books and music.

2 I saw a very excited / exciting film on TV last night.

3 This book is very bored / boring. I fall asleep whenever I try to read it.

4 We were very frightened / frightening when our car broke down in the desert.

5 He's a very interested / interesting person. He has lots of great stories to tell.

Adjectives ending ~ful

- Remember there is only one l in adjectives ending ~ful, e.g., beautiful, peaceful. But the adverb ending is ~fully, e.g., beautifully, peacefully.

Write four more adjectives ending in ~ful.

1 ______

2 ______

3 ______

4 ______

Now write sentences using the ~ful adjective and the ~fully adverb.

Examples:

The picture was beautiful.

The story was beautifully written.

1 ______

______

2 ______

______

3 ______

______

4 ______

______

Lesson 4

A Write questions based on the text for the following answers. There are several possible questions you could write, but just write one each time.

Example:

Q: How many people die of smoking every year?
A: About 114,000 per year.

Q: In which ______________________________?

A: It's highest in the 20–24 age group.

A: They die seven years earlier on average.

Q: ______________ under the age of ______________ every year?

A: Around 450 a year.

Q: ______________________________

______________________________?

A: Around £30 million a year.

Phrasal verbs

- With some phrasal verbs, noun objects can come before or after the preposition.
  Turn off the light.
  OR: Turn the light off.
- With phrasal verbs, pronoun objects must come before the preposition.
  Turn it off.
  NOT: Turn off it.

B Write the sentences, putting the verbs and objects in the correct order. Where two answers are possible, write them both.

1 Can you / turn on / the television?

Can you turn on the television? Can you turn the television on?

2 I've already / turned on / it.

I've already turned it on.

3 Smoking is terrible. You should / give up / it.

4 When did you / take up / stamp-collecting?

5 I can't remember when I / took up / it.

6 I like these shoes. Can I / try on / them?

7 Can you / turn down / the music?

8 I'll / turn down / it / in a minute.

Prefixes meaning not

- To form the opposite of some adjectives we can put the prefix un~ in front of them, e.g., unhappy, unpopular, unintelligent.
- The prefixes in~, im~, il~ or ir~ can also form the opposite, for example, inexpensive, impossible, illegal, irregular.
- The prefix un~ can go in front of any letter. The prefix im~ can only go in front of m or p. The prefix il~ can only go in front of l. The prefix ir~ can only go in front of r.

Make the opposites of these adjectives by putting the correct prefix in front of them. Choose from un~, in~, im~.

1	___correct	4	___efficient	7	___usual	10	___dependent
2	___moral	5	___fortunate	8	___polite	11	___convenient
3	___fair	6	___patient	9	___healthy	12	___pleasant

Lesson 8

Write 100 to 120 words on 'How to reduce the number of car accidents'. Use the notes on the right to help you. You don't have to use all the ideas. Make sure you add words and phrases to link the ideas and sentences. You can find these in Lesson 7 on page 12 of the Student's Book. Start like this:

There are thousands of car accidents a year which cause serious injuries. Most of these accidents have one of the following causes. Firstly, the driver is driving too fast.

Or sometimes, ______________________________

A third cause of accidents is when ______________________________

Last but not least, ______________________________

There are several ways the government could deal with this problem. Firstly, they could ______________________________

Furthermore, they could ______________________________

In my opinion, the best solution would be to ______________________________ 5 'The government should ban smoking in all public places.' Write 100 to 120 words on this topic. Use the following notes to help you. Make sure you link your ideas and sentences.

- Introduction: Smoking a dangerous habit – causes many deaths a year (from smoking-related diseases)
- Passive smoking (= breathing in smoke from people who are smoking near you) also causes disease, especially in children
- Non-smokers would prefer a smoke-free environment
- Adults smoking in public sets a bad example to children and teenagers
- Making life harder for smokers would make them give up
- Conclusion: A ban would save lives and save the government lots of money in health costs

Lesson 9 – Test yourself

GRAMMAR

Before you do Exercise D: revise the language box in the Activity Book, Lesson 2, page 4. Turn to the Grammar and Functions Reference at the back of the Student's Book, page 79. Revise how to form a) the past continuous tense; and b) the past simple tense of regular and irregular verbs.

D Put the verbs in brackets into the past continuous or past simple tense.

Last year, my friend Zeina ① __got__ (get) hurt in a car accident. This is how it ② ____________ (happen). She and her brother Salam and her sister Khaleda had spent the afternoon at Zubair, and they ③ ____________ (return) to Basra. Salam ④ ____________ (drive) and Khaleda ⑤ ____________ (sit) next to him in front. Salam ⑥ ____________ (go) quite fast. Suddenly a little boy ⑦ ____________ (run) on to the road. Salam ⑧ ____________ (put) his foot on the brake really hard and the car ⑨ ____________ . (stop) dead.

Luckily, he ⑩ ____________ (not hit) the little boy. Salam and Khaleda ⑪ ____________ (wear) seat belts so they ⑫ ____________ (not get) hurt. But Zeina, who ⑬ ____________ (sit) in the back, ⑭ ____________ (not wear) hers. Because of the sudden braking, Zeina ⑮ ____________ (fall) sideways and ⑯ ____________ (hit) her face hard against the window. She ⑰ ____________ (break) a tooth and ⑱ ____________ (cut) her face and hand. There ⑲ ____________ (be) a lot of blood.

After the accident, they ⑳ ______________ (be) all very shocked. They ㉑ ______________ (get) out of the car. Salam's legs ㉒ ______________ (shake) so they ㉓ ______________ (decide) to wait a bit before driving home.

Khaleda ㉔ ______________ (look) for her mobile to phone their father when a passing car ㉕ ______________ (slow) down. Zeina ㉖ ______________ (recognize) the driver. It was a family friend, Dr Latifa Mahmoud, from Haidari Medical Complex. She ㉗ ______________ (tell) Zeina to get in the car with her and she ㉘ ______________ (drive) her to the Accident and Emergency Department. They immediately ㉙ ______________ (stitch) the cuts on her face and ㉚ ______________ (put) a bandage on her hand.

Unfortunately, Zeina still has some scars on her face and a broken tooth. The moral of this story is: don't drive too fast and always wear your seat belt even if you are sitting in the back.

e) frequent ____________________

B Read the advert again and answer the questions about the job.

1 What kind of personality should you have to do this job? Why?

2 What do you need to be able to do to get this job?

3 Do you need to have worked as a security guard before to get this job?

C ⑦ Listen to the conversation between Samir Esam and Mr Hazem. Complete Samir's notes about what the security guard does. How is the job similar to a policeman's job? How is it different?

- work ① ____________ but not ② ____________
- ③ ____________ around the building every ④ ____________
- watch ⑤ ____________
- ⑥ ____________ if see anything unusual
- give people ⑦ ____________
- write ⑧ ____________

D Read the extracts from the conversation and underline the best alternative.

1 Could I speak to / I want to talk to Mr Hazem?

2 Will / May I ask who's calling?

3 This / That is Samir Esam.

4 Just a moment / Just wait, please.

5 Good morning. Is that / Are you Mr Hazem?

6 I'm calling about / because your advert in yesterday's paper.

7 All right then, would / do you like to come in for an appointment?

8 Yes, I would. What is a good time / When do I come?

Lesson 5

A Look at the words in bold in the text on page 20 of the Student's Book and try to guess their meaning. Check your ideas in a dictionary.

1 branches ______________________

2 join ______________________

3 install ______________________

4 maintain ______________________

5 officer ______________________

6 supervise ______________________

7 civilian ______________________

B In an exam, you sometimes have to find the main idea of a paragraph. It is what the paragraph is mostly about. Read the first paragraph of the text more carefully and look at the question in 1.

1 What is the main idea of the first paragraph?
   a) The Air Force is more fun because you can pilot planes.
   b) You can do many different things in the military.
   c) You have to be 18 years old to join the military.

Look at choice a). The problem with this answer is that it doesn't give information that is in the first paragraph. Some people may think that piloting a plane is fun, but this is not what the text says. It simply tells you that if you join the Air Force, you can work with airplanes and helicopters. So choice a) is incorrect.

Choice c) does repeat information that is found in the first paragraph, since the last sentence of the paragraph is You must be 18 years old to join. But if you look at the other sentences, you will see that they mostly deal with the different activities people can do in the military. The last sentence gives additional information that is not directly related to the activities that people can do in the military. So choice c) is incorrect.

Choice b) is the correct choice, since most of the sentences in the paragraph tell you about the variety of military jobs.

C Now read the other paragraphs and find the main ideas.

Paragraph 2
- a) Predicting the weather is important for people in the military.
- b) If you know about computers, you can find an interesting job.
- c) The computer hardware is old and needs to be fixed a lot.

Paragraph 3
- a) There are also jobs for people who don't have a technical background.
- b) People in the military need food and equipment.
- c) Driving a military vehicle is easy.

Paragraph 4
- a) Officers can be pilots.
- b) The military needs doctors at the army base.
- c) The military gives you a chance to get a better job.

Paragraph 5
- a) Working in the military is better than working in other places.
- b) There are classrooms in the military like at school.
- c) The military teaches you skills you can use in civilian life.

D Rewrite the sentences with should or shouldn't, as in the example.

1 You have always wanted to fly. I think you will like the Air Force.

You have always wanted to fly. You should like the Air Force.

2 I've studied hard for the test, so I think I'll pass.

3 You like exercising, so I don't think you'll have trouble getting fit.

4 They learnt a lot in the military, so I don't think they'll have trouble getting a job.

5 This is a new computer, so I think it is faster than the other one.

Lesson 6

Study Tip: Skimming and scanning

- When you are looking for information in a text, you can save a lot of time if you use the right technique. Two common techniques are skimming and scanning. Skimming means looking at the whole text quickly, without reading it in detail, to understand what the text is about. Scanning is letting your eyes go over the text quickly to search for specific information. Scanning is a good technique when you know what you are looking for.

A Scan the texts on page 21 of the Student's Book, and circle the correct answer.

1 Who called the police?
 a) Sue
 b) Mr Smith
 c) Mrs Smith

2 What woke Sue up?
 a) the police
 b) the telephone
 c) a loud noise

3 Who saw the robber?
 a) a witness
 b) the police
 c) Sue

B Read the texts more carefully and answer the questions.

1 Why are the police reminding homeowners to lock their doors and windows?

2 Why is Sue happy that the robber left before her father went downstairs?

3 How does Sue feel now?

____

4 Why is Sue upset that her father's computer was stolen?

5 Why is Sue's father getting the window lock replaced?

C Complete the columns on the right with less formal words from the e-mail.

Formal	Less formal	Formal	Less formal
occurred	______	investigate	______
injured	______	property	______
alerted	______

have, get* and *make

- Use have and get + object + past participle when something is done to or for someone.
  - My father had his computer stolen.
  - My father is getting the lock replaced today.
- Use make + object + infinitive when someone or something causes something to happen.
  - My father made me go back to my room.

D Rewrite the sentences with the correct form of have, get or make.

Example: Somebody stole my television. I had my television stolen.

1 I asked somebody to cut my hair.

I had ______

2 She asked somebody to fix the window.

She got ______

3 He looked outside because he heard a noise.

The noise made him ______

4 The leaves fell because of the wind.

The wind ______

5 A photographer took a picture of the witness.

The witness ______

Lesson 7

A Read the brochure on page 22 of the Student's Book. The writer uses different techniques to keep the reader interested and convince him that what he says is important. Find an example of the following techniques in the paragraphs in the Student's Book.

1 Questions to make you want to read to get the answer

2 Exclamations to show that the whole sentence is surprising or important

3 Strong adjectives

4 Strong adverbs to make adjectives stronger

5 Examples to make a previous sentence clearer

B Look at some ideas for keeping your home safe. Think of a reason for each one.

Things people shouldn't do:

Keep keys on a hook by the window

Thieves can get them by breaking the window.

Keep keys in a flowerpot by the door

Tell strangers when you will be away

Things people should do:

Leave lights on when going out after dark

Give a family member a key

Ask a neighbour to collect mail

Tell your neighbours if you are going on holiday

C Now use your notes to complete the paragraphs below.

Use your head: learn good security habits

It is not enough to have good locks. It's also important to learn good habits. It's foolish to keep your keys on a hook by the window, because thieves can break the window and get the keys to open your door.

Friends and family

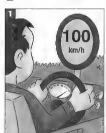

What else can you do to keep your home safe? Your friends, family and neighbours can help you.

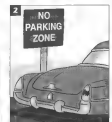

D Look back at what you've written and make changes you think will make your paragraphs stronger and more convincing.

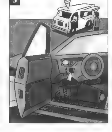

E Read your paragraphs to a partner. Are your partner's paragraphs clear? Is the language strong? Tell your partner what you like about his or her paragraphs, and make suggestions if you can.

Lesson 8

A Look at the cartoons. What's wrong in each picture?

keys parking valuables lights brakes speeding driving licence

Advice for drivers	Reasons
Don't leave your keys in the ignition.	Someone could take them and steal your car.

C Write your ideas in two paragraphs. Look at the paragraph headings to help you decide where to put your ideas.

Drive safely

Keep your car safe

D Reread your paragraphs. What changes can you make to make them clearer and stronger?

E Proofread for spelling, grammar and punctuation.

F Now exchange paragraphs with a partner. Do you have any questions about your partner's paragraphs? What is good about your partner's paragraphs?

Lesson 9 – Test yourself

Pair B: You are secretaries at Birchwood International College. Use the information on page 32 of the Student's Book and your imagination to answer the questions.

Lesson 8

1 Complete an e-mail to a friend asking him/her to come with you to Britain this summer to do an English course. Use the information on page 32 of the Student's Book.

Dear ____________________

I'm thinking of doing an English course at Birchwood International College this summer. I was wondering if you would like to join me. It would be much nicer to have a friend with me, although we would have to promise to only speak English to each other!

I was thinking of going for ______________ weeks in ______________. Of course, it is never very hot in Britain, not even in the summer. So we wouldn't need to worry about the heat.

There is a choice of 24 locations. The college has both country and city locations. Personally, I would prefer to be in ______________ because ______________________________ but of course, I don't mind if you have a strong opinion about where you would like to go.

There is also a choice of accommodation. We can either stay ______________________ ______________ or we can stay ______________________________________.

Personally, I would prefer ____ because ____

______________ but I am open to your suggestions.

The price of the course will be around £150 a week and the accommodation will cost around £75 a week. We will also need to take plenty of pocket money for shopping, ____________________ and souvenirs. I definitely think it will be worth it even if it does cost a lot of money. We will learn ______________________________ and visit some wonderful places.

I really hope you can come. It will be a great experience. Let me know what you think.
Looking forward to hearing from you,

Best wishes,

8 Write an e-mail to a friend asking him/her to come with you abroad this summer to do an English course. Write 100 to 120 words. The following notes will be useful.

- Suggest the month when you'd like to go and how long you'd like to go for.
- Describe the choice of locations.
- Suggest the location you'd prefer. Give reasons for your preference. For example, in a city there will be more to do and lots of good shops and restaurants. Or, in a country location, there will be plenty of peace and quiet and the opportunity to get fit.
- Say you are open to suggestions about location.
- Suggest the type of accommodation you would prefer. Give reasons. For example, with a homestay you would get more chance to meet British people and speak English in the evenings. Or, if you stay in a hostel, you would enjoy more freedom and independence, and you would find it more fun to be with other international students your own age.
- Talk about the prices. Say that you know it will be expensive but you think it will be worth it.

5 I don't like booking flights online. Let's go and buy our tickets at that ______________ in Al Saad Street.

6 If you order it now, the hotel kitchen will make a ______________ for anyone who is going on the tour tomorrow.

7 I spent the morning at the beach and in the afternoon we did some ______________. I took lots of photos of the Roman temples.

8 You can't rely on public transport on that island. You should find out about ______________ so you can travel more independently.

Compound nouns

- Compound nouns can be found in three different forms:
  - as in most of this exercise, where they are two separate nouns (or adjective + noun);
  - those that are linked by a hyphen;
  - those that have become one word.

There is no clear rule about which form to use, and the form changes over time. When words are often used together, they might become hyphenated and later become one word.

Examples of two words becoming one are much more common than hyphenated words. For example, cardboard, footstep, lifestyle, sunset.

B Match the questions and responses. Then write one more line for each conversation.

1 ☐ Do you have a complaint, madam?

2 ☐ What's the exchange rate, please?

3 ☐ Excuse me. Where's the check-in for the Lebanon flight?

A It's a bit early. I don't think it's open yet.

ever, never + present perfect simple

- We use ever and never with the present perfect simple. We use ever in questions, e.g., Have you ever eaten octopus? We can use never to answer them, e.g., No, I've never tried it.

D Write true sentences with never about you, your family and your friends. Write about:

1 animals (ride / hold / see / touch)

I've never ridden an elephant.

My sister has never held a scorpion.

2 a game (play)

3 food (eat / try / make)

4 a place (be to / visit)

5 a sport or activity (do / run / swim, etc.)

C Write one word in each gap, then write the conversation in the correct order.

1 Two years ____________, Karim organized a trip on his birthday.

2 Have you _ever_ ____________ camped in the desert?

3 It was great. We made a fire and we cooked a whole sheep. I really enjoyed ____________.

4 Lucky you. I've never done that, but I'd like to. When ____________ you go?

5 Oh, I remember. I wanted to go on that, but I couldn't. What ____________ it like?

6 Yes, I ____________.

A: Have you ever camped in the desert?

B: ____

B: ____

just, already, yet + present perfect

- We use just + present perfect when we talk about something that happened a short time ago, e.g., You look nice. Have you just been to the hairdresser?
- We use already + present perfect when we talk about something that happened before we expected it, e.g., It's only eight o'clock but Samira has already gone to bed.
- We use yet + present perfect in negative sentences and questions when we talk about something we expect to happen, e.g., I haven't done my exams yet. [But I will soon.] Have you passed your driving test yet? [I expect you have, or will soon.]

Complete the responses, using just/already/yet and an appropriate verb.

Example:

Would you like a cup of coffee?
No, thanks. I've just had one.

1 Does Samira know about the meeting?
I'm sorry, I ______________________.

2 Would you like to come to see the new film with us?
Thanks for asking, but I ______________________.

3 Can I borrow that book after you?
Here you are. I ______________________.

4 Look at the noticeboard. There's an advert for English courses.
I know, I ______________________.

5 If you see Khalid, can you ask him about tonight?
He can come. I ______________________.

A Find the collocations for the following words in the text on page 46 of the Student's Book.

1 thoroughly ____________

2 I can honestly ____________

3 lived up to my ____________

4 to name a ____________

How long + present perfect simple – for or since

- We use the question How long + present perfect when we want to ask about a period of time from a point in the past until now.
- We use the present perfect simple when we ask and answer about states using verbs like be, have, know, live and work.

  How long have you been married? How long have you lived here?*
- When the answer relates to a period of time, we use for.

  For ten years.*
- When the answer relates to a point in time, we use since.

  Since 2003.*
- We often answer questions with a short answer, as above. The full answer to the question would be:

  We have been married for ten years.
  We have been married since 2003.

Remember: When we ask a question with How long, we usually assume that the event has not finished. In the example above, we assume the two people are still married.

1 Choose for or since to complete the phrases.

Examples:

since ________ Friday
for ________ ten years

1 ________ I was at nursery school
2 ________ last January
3 ________ yesterday
4 ________ three weeks
5 ________ a month and a half
6 ________ I was six
7 ________ ages
8 ________ I was born
9 ________ the first of March
10 ________ about 1996
11 ________ two hours
12 ________ a very long time

C Work in pairs. Take turns asking and answering the questions. Then make up five more questions and ask and answer them.

How long have you:

- been at this school?
- lived in your house?
- known your best friend?
- studied English?
- been able to swim?
- had a mobile phone/CD player/MP3 player?
- had a ______________________________
- had a ______________________________
- known ______________________________
- been interested in ______________________________
- been able to ______________________________

How long have you been at this school?

For six years.

D Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence, putting the verbs in brackets in the present perfect simple.

Example:

The last time I saw her was in 2001. (not see)

I haven't seen her since 2001.

They got married three years ago. (be)

They've been married for three years.

1 We first met them in July. (know)

2 He bought that motorbike a long time ago. (have)

____

3 She last went to the dentist in September. (not be)

____

4 We last ate there in July. (not eat)

____

5 He got angry at lunchtime. (be)

____

6 The last time he wrote or phoned was six months ago. (not be in touch)

____

Read the language box. Then use the information to complete the exercise below.

Present perfect continuous

- We use the present perfect continuous when asking and answering about activities that began in the past and have just finished or are still going on now.

  *How long have they been talking?

- The present perfect continuous describes the same time period as the present perfect simple, so we use since and for with this tense as well.

  (They've been talking) for an hour/since eight o'clock.

For each situation, write questions using the words in brackets. Use the present perfect simple or present perfect continuous. Then write a suitable answer using since or for.

Example:

You arrive late for your appointment. You ask:

(how long / wait?) How long have you been waiting?

For ten minutes. / Since six o'clock.

1 You have a friend who is learning Japanese. You ask:

(how long / learn / Japanese?) ______________________________

____

2 You meet a pilot. You ask:

(how long / be a pilot?) ______________________________

____

3 You meet somebody who is a writer. You ask:

(how long / write?) ______________________________

____

4 You are going to meet a friend of your cousin. You ask:

(how long / know?) ______________________________

____

5 Your sister is busy cooking for a party. You ask:

(how long / cook?) ______________________________

____

Lesson 4

been* and *gone

- We use has gone to say that someone has gone away and has not yet returned.
  Adel is on holiday. He has gone to Dubai. (= He is in Dubai now.)
- We use has been to say that someone went away, returned and is still back.
  Latifa and her family have been on holiday in Dubai. They had a good time there. (= They went and came back.)

A Write the past participle of these irregular verbs.

be	been	leave	________
buy	________	meet	________
do	________	see	________
find	________	spend	________
go	________

B Complete the sentences with the correct form of the present perfect. Choose an appropriate verb in each case.

1 Let's not watch this DVD. I ________ ________ it four times already.

2 I ________________ my mobile at last. It was under the bed! Now I can phone Beth.

3 I ________________ a fantastic new CD. Do you want to come round and listen to it?

4 I ________________ to the cinema. I saw a really good film.

5 I can't see the screen. I ________________ my glasses at home.

6 I'm afraid Souad ________________ out with her sister. They left about ten minutes ago.

Present perfect

- General rule: Present perfect refers to what happened in a period starting in the past and ending in the present or continuing into the future. Often there is a result in the present.
  Someone has drunk all the orange juice. (Period: between buying the orange juice and now. Result: now there is no orange juice left.)
- Key words: We often use present perfect with ever, never, just, already, yet, so far and since. We often use it with for and questions with How long, How often and How many.

  Compare: He has lived there for two years. (and still does)
  He lived there for two years. (but left three years ago)
  Compare: How long have you lived there? (and are still living there)
  How long did you live there? (before you left)
- General rule: We use the past simple for actions that happened and ended in the past.
  Al-Khwarizmi invented algebra in about 830.
- Key words: We use the past simple with time phrases like yesterday, last week, on Tuesday, two years ago and in a lot of When questions.
  When did they arrive? They got here ten minutes ago.*

C Complete the dialogue with the correct form of the present perfect or past simple.

A: I'm really excited because I'm going to London in the summer.

B: ① Have you bought (you / buy) your plane ticket yet?

A: Yes, I ② have ________ (have). I ③ ________ (buy) it last week.

B: ④ ________ (you / book) a hotel yet?

A: No, I ⑤ ________. But my uncle and aunt in London ⑥ ________ (just / write) to me inviting me to stay with them.

B: ⑦ ________ (you / buy) any maps of London or guidebooks yet?

A: Yes, I ⑧ ________. I ⑨ ________ (buy) a map and two guidebooks last week.

D Practise the dialogue in pairs a few times until you can do it without reading it from the book.

Lesson 5

A Read the language box.

Past perfect

- We form the past perfect with had + past participle.
- We use the past perfect for two events in the past when there is a need to show which came first. This can be:
  - when the first event is used as an explanation of what happened next, for example with because or so:
    We couldn't get a room because we hadn't booked.
  - when we talk about change:
    When I saw my brother again, his hair had gone grey.
  - When we want to make clear what event came first, for example, using before or after:
    After I had done my homework, I went to the cinema.
- Note: We do not use the past perfect for a simple series of events in the past.
  I arrived at the hotel and went straight to the reception. We asked for a room and they gave us one on the top floor.

B Put the verbs in the past simple or past perfect.

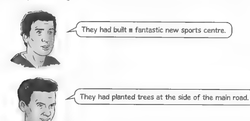

I grew up in a small Turkish fishing village called Side. I left Side 20 years ago. Last week, I went back there for the first time. It ① had changed ______ (change) beyond recognition. It ② ______ (not be) a village any more. It ③ ______ (grow) into a big tourist resort. They ④ ______ (build) apartment blocks and hotels everywhere. It ⑤ ______ (look) so modern. They ⑥ ______ (make) a big road along the seafront. They ⑦ ______ (close) my old primary school and now it ⑧ ______ (be) a hotel. My favourite café ⑨ ______ (become) a souvenir shop for tourists. The market ⑩ ______ (move) from the main square to an area near the bus station. They ⑪ ______ (not plant) any trees in the new marketplace so there ⑫ ______ (be) no shade to sit in.

C Work in groups. Choose one of the situations below. Take it in turns to say one sentence each on the chosen situation. Use the past perfect.

Situations

- Returning: You went back to your hometown after 15 years away. What things had changed?
- Crime: You came home and found a thief had broken into your house. What had they stolen / broken / done?
- Surprise: You came home and found your family and friends had organized a party for you. What things had they done? (cake / music / balloons / lights / guests)

Example: Returning

D Write about one of the situations in Exercise C, using the past perfect and past simple. Write 100 to 120 words. Start like this:

Return: I went back to my hometown for the first time in 15 years. It had changed a lot.

Crime: I got home from school yesterday and something terrible had happened. A thief had ...

Surprise: I got home from the shops yesterday and found my family had organized a surprise party for me. They had ...

Finish your paragraph for homework.

____

3 Would you like to go on this holiday? Say why or why not.

E Work in pairs. Give your partner a brief description of a holiday you have been on. Ask your partner questions to get more information about the holiday.

6 Now write a brief description of the holiday. First make notes about the points below. Then write your description. Write 100 to 120 words.

- Where was the holiday?
- Who did you go with?
- Where did you stay?
- What was the place like?
- What did you do in the day?
- What did you do in the evening?
- What was the best thing about the holiday?
- What was the worst thing about the holiday?

Lesson 7

A Read the language box and add four examples.

Relative clauses

- Relative clauses can be defining or non-defining.
- Defining relative clauses
  - Defining relative clauses give essential information.
  - We use who for people, which or that for things and where for places. We use whose to show possession.

    The man who lives next door has just bought a private jet.
    What have you done with the letter that was on the table?
    The café where I work sells the best ice-cream.
    The girl whose bike I borrowed yesterday is called Layla.
    The bike which I borrowed yesterday is blue.
- Non-defining relative clauses
  - Non-defining relative clauses give an extra piece of information.
  - We use who for people, which for things and where for places. We cannot use that. We use whose to show possession.
  - When combining sentences to make a relative clause, there is incorporated into where, e.g., The University of ... is excellent. I studied English there. The University of ..., where I studied English, is excellent.
- There is a comma (,) at the beginning of a non-defining relative clause, and a comma or a full stop at the end of it.

  My father, who loves reading, buys two or three new books a week.
  Babylon City, which is 85 kilometres south of Baghdad, is a popular tourist site.
  Dubai, where I spent my last holiday, is famous for its luxury hotels.
  I lent the book to Saeed, who loves reading.
  My brother, whose car was in an accident yesterday, is in hospital.

B Combine these sentences with who, that or where to make defining relative clauses.

1 I spoke to a lady on the phone. She told me to call back later.

The lady who I ______________________ told me to call back later.

2 They've knocked down the restaurant. We had a meal there last year.

They've knocked down the restaurant ______________________________.

3 I always go to that garage for repairs. It was closed today.

The garage ______________________________ was closed today.

4 His car has broken down. He bought it last month.

The car ______________________________ has broken down.

5 The book was missing. It has the information I wanted.

The book ______________________________.

C Complete the sentences with who, which, where or whose and add commas.

1 Riverside Cinema ______________ the tickets only cost £6 for students usually has good foreign films.

2 Beirut ______________ is full of good cafés and restaurants is a really interesting city.

3 My cousin Mike ______________ loves skiing is going to buy a holiday home in the Swiss Alps.

4 My sister ______________ favourite food is pizza is having her birthday party at an Italian restaurant.

5 Fatima ______________ photo was in the newspaper yesterday is a very talented girl.

D Use the correct relative pronoun to make one sentence. The sentence in brackets ( ) becomes the relative clause. Add commas where necessary.

Examples:

My Uncle Albert still rides a bike. (He is 86.)

My Uncle Albert, who is 86, still rides a bike.

The hotel has a swimming pool. (It is very big.)

The hotel has a swimming pool that is very big.

1 Salwa wants to be an interpreter. (She speaks three languages.)

2 The Tigris Hotel has a fabulous pool. (The pool opened two months ago.)

____

3 Bashir is going to buy a car very soon. (He passed his driving test last week.)

____

4 The Star Restaurant has a lovely garden. (You can have a meal there on summer evenings.)

Lesson 8

A It is sometimes difficult to think of ideas for an essay, particularly in an exam. One answer is to write down anything you can think of connected with the title, even unimportant things. This is called brainstorming. When you read the things you have written down, you will probably find some that you can use. Thinking of ideas quickly is really important, especially in an exam.

It is easier to think of ideas when you are in a group. Practise with the following essay title. One person should be the secretary and write down the ideas.

'What would you recommend a visitor to do for a week in Iraq?'

Think about these points:

- Which hotel in Baghdad? One with a good price? Good view? Good service?
- Some things to do in Baghdad: The National Museum of Iraq: why? history of the country.
- Some things to do outside Baghdad: Temples in Hatra: beautiful ruins. Najaf: holy city (Wadi us Salaam).

B Now read the notes for this essay title: 'The future of tourism in Iraq'. Work in pairs and add three or four suggestions on what you think tourism in Iraq will be like in the future.

Accommodation:

hotels in all price ranges to suit all budgets?

privately run bed and breakfast (could it be a good way for foreigners to learn more about Iraqi culture?)

Public transport:

clearly signed for foreigners

Types of holidays:

holidays for learning Arabic, henna painting, Iraqi cooking

Tours:

C Work in pairs. Look at the brainstorming ideas for this essay title: 'What can make a good holiday?' Add specific examples for Accommodation, Money, Meeting new people and Learning about a different culture. Then write two more general answers with specific examples.

General answers	Specific examples
Who you go with	If you go with an older person, you'll probably have to walk slowly and go to bed early! Choose your travel companion carefully.
Choosing the right place	Don't go to a village in the mountains if you are interested in shopping and entertainment.
Accommodation
Money
Meeting new people
Learning about a different culture

D When you write essays you should use connectors to link your ideas. Which of these connectors are used a) for adding information? b) for contrasting?

but	however	in addition (to this)	also	although	as well as	too

E Choose one of the essays in Exercise A, B or C. Write 100 to 120 words.

Passive forms

- We use the passive form when we don't know, or don't need to know, who or what did the action.
  - This money was deposited last week.
- We also use the passive form when the subject is less important than what happened. In this case, we can add it at the end, linked with by.
  - The money was deposited last week by my uncle.
- The passive is often used to describe a process. However, it should not be overused.
  - When cash is withdrawn from an ATM, it is taken from your account. The transaction is shown on your statement.
- To change from active to passive, we use to be + past participle. Note the tense change in the examples:
  - The bank is being renovated.
  - The bank statement was sent yesterday.
  - The cash withdrawal will be shown on your statement.
  - Three deposits have been made into my account since last week.

E Summarize the text. Write 100 to 120 words.

Lesson 4

A 🎧 ⑳ Listen to and read the conversations. Decide if these statements are true (T) or false (F).

1 (C1) The customer forgot her handbag because she was rushing. ☐

2 (C1) The banker suggests stopping her cards. ☐

3 (C2) The customer went to the ATM before coming to the shop. ☐

4 (C2) The sign tells customers that the shop doesn't accept cheques or credit cards. ☐

5 (C3) It is possible that the customer has no more credit on her card. ☐

6 (C4) ATMs do not keep cards if the account is empty. ☐

7 (C4) The customer has forgotten her new card. ☐

Conversation 1

Banker: Good morning. Can I help you?

Customer: Yes, I don't know what to do. I've lost my handbag. My wallet, with all my money and bank cards, was in it.

Banker: Are you sure you've lost it? Couldn't you have just left it at home?

Customer: No. I definitely had it when I was at the café. I was talking to my friend when we left and I think I left it on the table.

Banker: Did you go back to look for it?

Customer: Yes, it wasn't there. If I hadn't been in such a hurry, I wouldn't have left it there!

Banker: Don't worry. If we cancel your cards now, no one else will be able to use them. New ones will be sent to you very soon.

Conversation 2

Customer: Do you take credit cards?

Cashier: I'm sorry, we don't.

Customer: Can I pay by cheque?

Cashier: No, we only take cash.

Customer: I didn't know that.

Cashier: Look, it's on the sign.

Customer: Oh, no. If I'd known that, I would have brought cash.

Cashier: Well, if you went to the bank in the next street, you could get cash from the ATM.

Customer: Thank you very much.

Conversation 3

Waiter: I'm sorry, sir. Your credit card isn't working.

Customer: Could you try it again, please? It worked yesterday.

Waiter: I'm sorry, it still isn't working. Sometimes if you put in the wrong number several times, it gets blocked. Or you may have reached your credit limit. Would you like to pay by cheque instead?

Customer: Yes, that's a good idea.

Conversation 4

Customer: Good morning. Can you help me? My bank card didn't come out of the ATM.

Banker: Of course. Can you give me your account number? I'll check your account.

Customer: Yes, it's 92671098. Does this mean there's no money in my account?

Banker: No. If there was no money in your account, the machine would still give you your card back. I see the problem. Your card has expired.

Customer: It has?

Banker: Yes. Today is April 5 and your card was valid until April 4. We sent you a new card two weeks ago.

Customer: I never received it.

Banker: We'll cancel that one and send you a new one, then. You should receive it in three or four days.

B Find conditional sentences in the conversations. Read the language box and identify what type they are.

Types of conditional sentences

- There are four basic types of conditional sentences: zero, first, second and third. We use:
  - Zero conditional: to talk about something that is always true.
    If you look at a computer screen for too long, your eyes get tired.
  - First conditional: to talk about the result of a possible action in the future.
    If you send the letter today, it will arrive on Thursday.
  - Second conditional: to talk about an action that depends on an imaginary present or future situation or action.
    If I had a lot of money, I would buy a big boat.
  - Third conditional: when we talk about a desire to change something in the past. This is impossible as the actions are finished.
    If I'd taken a taxi, I would have arrived on time.
- Note: Sometimes we can use could instead of would in conditional sentences.
  - Conditional sentences have two parts: the if clause and the main conditional clause. The order is not usually important, but when the if clause comes first, they are separated by a comma:
    If I hadn't been in such a hurry, I wouldn't have left it there!
    I wouldn't have left it there if I hadn't been in such a hurry!

C Choose the sentence with the same meaning and name the type of conditional sentence.

zero conditional	first conditional	second conditional	third conditional

3 If Noor goes to the shop tomorrow, I won't have to go. ______________

a) Noor will not go to the shop tomorrow, so I will have to go.

b) It's possible Noor will go to the shop tomorrow.

4 If people drive for too long, they get tired. ______________

a) People sometimes drive for too long and get tired.

b) When people are tired, they don't drive for too long.

D Tell your partner about a time when you lost or forgot something. You have two minutes to prepare. Make notes if you want to. Talk about:

- what it was.
- when it happened.
- where it happened.
- why it happened.
- whether you got it back.
- what the consequences were.

Now tell your partner what happened. You can use your notes, but don't read directly from your paper. Your partner can ask you questions when you have finished. Then listen to your partner.

Formal and informal letters

- We write formal letters to people who we don't know very well. These are often official letters where we can ask for information, make complaints, apply for jobs, etc. In formal letters, we don't use contractions, idioms or colloquial expressions. There are also many standard expressions. In formal letters, passive forms are quite common.
- We write informal letters to friends and family – people we know well. These letters often use language which is similar to spoken language. We use contractions, idioms and colloquial expressions. The language is generally more friendly.

C Look at the letter of complaint Samira wrote to her bank and put it in the correct order. Then answer the question after the letter.

a) Yours sincerely,
Samira Ansari ☐

b) Would you please send me some information about online banking as well? I've just bought a computer, and I would like to know if I can pay my bills online. ☐

c) Could you please send me a new cheque book with my name correctly spelt as soon as possible? I need to write cheques often, and it is very inconvenient for me to be without a cheque book. ☐

d) This letter is to inform you of a problem I discovered when I received my new cheque book yesterday. My name has been misspelt on the cheques. It should read Samira Ansari, not Sanira Ansari. ☐

C Read about making inferences.

Making inferences

As discussed in Unit 5, you often have to make inferences to answer questions. Making inferences involves understanding information that is not clearly stated in the text. You decide what makes sense based on the information you have in the text.

Although this may sound difficult, you do it all the time without realizing it. For example, if you read a sentence that says: Ahmed put his swimsuit and sun cream in his bag, you can infer that Ahmed is going to the beach or outdoor pool.

What can you infer from the information in Paragraph 1?
a) A lot of people are looking for jobs or want to get a better job.
b) Many people are learning about computers for their pleasure.

It may be true that many people are learning about computers for their pleasure, but we don't have any reason to infer this from the information in Paragraph 1, so the answer is not b).

But the sentence: Learning new computer skills can also help you change careers, and the number of people enrolling in computer classes is increasing, tells us that learning about computers can help you get a new job, and also that more and more people are taking computer classes. We can infer that these people want to get better jobs, so the answer is a).

D Choose a) or b) to say which inference you can make from the article on page 66 of the Student's Book. Underline the sentence or sentences that helped you decide.

Paragraph 2:
a) If you are a banker, you should learn to use spreadsheets.
b) More and more teachers are learning to use spreadsheets.

Paragraph 2:
a) Web design is easy.
b) More and more companies have websites.

Paragraph 3:
a) Students don't have to take computer classes.
b) Many universities offer classes for people who work.

Paragraph 3:

a) Some online classes won't help you get a better job.
b) Online classes are always well taught.

Paragraph 3:

a) Teaching yourself with a book is not easy.
b) The best way to learn about computers is to read a book.

E Put the verb in brackets in the correct future form. Use the present simple, present continuous or going to + infinitive.

1 Some day, Ahmed ______________________ (take) a computer class so he can get a better job.

2 My new class ______________ (start) tomorrow.

3 He ______________________ (tell) Dana she passed the exam.

4 They ____________________ (leave) at 10.00.

5 We ______________ (have) a party on Wednesday. Can you come?

6 The term ______________ (begin) on September 3.

B Read about linking ideas in a paragraph.

Linking ideas

The ideas in a paragraph can be linked in different ways. Understanding how the ideas are connected can help you understand what the author is saying. Some of the most common types of links are:

A Going from general to specific information
The author makes a statement and gives examples or details. Some common linking words are: for example, for instance, such as.

B Cause and effect
The author explains that an event took place and what the result was. Some common linking words are: as a result, therefore, so.

C Time order
The author talks about what happened first, next, last. Some common linking words are: first, next, then, after that, once, as soon as.

D Comparison or contrast
The author talks about how things are the same or different. Some common linking words are: however, whereas, like, unlike, while.

1 Find an example of Type A linking in the first paragraph.

B Listen again to the last speaker and make a list of advantages and disadvantages of having your own business.

Advantages

You can be proud of your company.

Disadvantages

You have to work harder.

C Work in pairs and role-play a conversation for the following situation. Student A wants to start a business. Student B does not think it is a good idea. Student A puts the advantages and Student B the disadvantages. Use the points in Exercise B and add any extra ideas you think of during the conversation.

Lesson 7

A Read about opinion essays.

Expressing opinions

In an essay expressing opinion, you say what you think about a subject. But it isn't enough to say what you think, you also need to say why you think this. This makes your essay more convincing and interesting.

The essay begins with an introduction, and this usually mentions what you are going to write about in the main part of your essay.

The body of the essay gives more details and the reasons for your opinion. If there are two sides to a question, you can write about one side in one paragraph, and the other in the next paragraph.

In the conclusion you can sum up your ideas and your opinion.

B Read the essay on page 70 of the Student's Book and put the paragraphs in order below.

1 Introduction: ____________

2 Body: ____ ____________ and ____________

3 Conclusion: ____________

C Read the essay again and answer the questions.

1 According to the writer, what are the advantages of the Internet?

2 What is the main disadvantage of the Internet?

- danger to animals and plants
- recycling
- electronic waste

Lesson 5

A In pairs, discuss and make a list of things you know about global warming.

B Now look at the notes for an essay about global warming. Are the ideas the same as yours?

What is global warming?
- global warming – average increase in Earth's temperature (recorded over many years)
- could have an effect on the climate
- scientists agree Earth getting warmer
- some scientists say people contribute to global warming, but some say it's a natural phenomenon

Possible causes of global warming

- more greenhouse gases than before (example of greenhouse gas – CO_2)
- greenhouse gases cause greenhouse effect (heat from sun is trapped in atmosphere)
- greenhouse effect necessary to keep Earth warm, but too much could cause global warming
- some scientists think what people do is making greenhouse effect stronger
- things that contribute to greenhouse gases: using petrol, deforestation, landfills

Possible effects of global warming

- glaciers melting (could make sea levels rise, cause flooding in coastal areas)
- make some areas too hot and dry to grow food (people might die or have to move)
- destroy a lot of animal habitats (some species could become extinct)

What we can do

- use less petrol by car pooling, etc.
- save electricity – turn off lights, computers when not using
- recycling – rubbish that is recycled doesn't go to landfill

C Now read the first paragraph of an essay on global warming. Tick the ideas in the notes in Exercise A that are in the paragraph. Then underline the sentences in the paragraph below that should be in a separate paragraph.

Global warming

Global warming is an average increase in the Earth's temperature. This increase must be recorded over many years before scientists can say that the Earth is really getting warmer. Most scientists agree that there has been an increase in the Earth's temperature over the last 100 years. Scientists don't all agree about how it has happened, however. Some think it's natural, and some think it's caused by what people do. The causes of global warming are not completely clear, but many scientists think the greenhouse effect is one of them. The greenhouse effect is caused when gases trap heat in the atmosphere.

D Write the sentences you underlined. The paragraph is a little too short. Use ideas from the notes to complete it.

E Complete the essay by writing two more paragraphs using the notes in Exercise B and your own ideas.

F Reread your essay. Are your paragraphs balanced? Check your grammar and punctuation.

Checklist for written work

Planning your work

- Read the question carefully. Underline the important parts. Do you understand it? If it is not clear, then ask your teacher.
- Brainstorm as many ideas as you can of what you are going to write about. Write them down as a list or mind map.
- Look up any vocabulary that you are unsure of.
- Select the ideas you want to use and delete any that are not relevant. You don't have to use everything.
- Put your ideas into a logical order and group ideas that go together in sections.
- If you can, find a model text and look at the style and layout. Are there any phrases or vocabulary that you can adapt for your own work? (Be careful not to copy chunks of the model text without changing it, though.)
- Think about who you are writing for and decide on the style and layout. For example, if you are writing a letter to a friend, the style will be different to a formal letter and the layout will be different to a story.

Writing and revising your work

- Use the ideas from your planning to write the first draft. Don't worry too much about accuracy or choosing the right words.
- Remember to start a new paragraph every time you move on to a new idea or topic.
- Read through your first draft and check that you have answered the question correctly.
- Decide if you want to delete, change or add any more ideas.
- Decide whether you want to change the paragraphing or the order of the ideas.
- Check that you have linked your ideas using connecting words and phrases, e.g., first, next, then, etc.)
- Write a second draft more carefully and slowly. Make sure your writing is clear.

Editing your work

- Read through your work. Check you have answered the question correctly, every sentence is clear, the grammar is correct, you have used suitable vocabulary and linking words, and the spelling is correct. (Check with a dictionary.)
- Show your work to your family or a friend and see if they can help you edit it.
- Editing tip: You could try reading the text in reverse order, starting with the final sentence and working backwards to the first sentence. This will stop you being distracted by the content and allow you to focus on technical details.
